GERMAN ONSLAUGHT AT SOISSONS—NEW RECORD FOR WHEAT—NINE DIE IN FIRE

GAS EXPLOSION KILLS NINE AND HURTS SIX MORE

Tragedy Occurs in Bunk House of Chemical Company Near Mayburg, Pa.

SIMILAR FATALITY JUST YEAR AGO

Demise of Others, Thought To Be Injured Fatally, Expected—Trapped in Two-Story Structure, Which Was Consumed by Flames—Employees Engaged in Extracting Chemicals

WARREN, PA., Feb. 3.—Nine men were cremated at Mayburg, 30 miles south of here, early today, when the two-story frame bunk house of the Finest Valley Chemical Company burned as the result of the explosion of a gas stove.

Sixteen men were asleep in the building when the explosion occurred.
One of them escaped. He jumped through a rear window. Others, people aroused by the explosion, formed rescue parties and tried to get the other 15 men from the burning building.

They were only able to reach six.
The charred bodies of the nine men who perished were found later in the ruins.

The disjuncting of a gas pipe is believed to have caused the explosion.

CHILDREN'S HOME PLANS INFIRMARY

Ladies' Auxiliary Votes for Erection of Structure—Officers Selected

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the New Jersey Children's Home Society was held this morning in the parlors of the Y. W.
C. A. It was voted to build a new infirmary for children suffering from various diseases, and to raise funds for this project, a supper will be given by the members of the Auxiliary, March 24 and 25 in Masonic Temple.

There was a large attendance at the meeting and the following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Edward B. De-non; first vice president, Mrs.
Stephen F. Reed; second vice president, Mrs. Norman Foster; secretary, Miss A. Ossenberg; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Leavitt; treasurer, Mrs. R. M. Sutcliffe.

ROBBER GETS $12 FROM STORE HERE

The Burd grocery store on East Hanover Street, was entered last night and $12 in cash was stolen.
Chief effected an entrance through a barred window in the rear of the store. The police believe the work was that of a boy, as the opening is not large enough to permit the body of a man to go through.

SELL SUFFRAGE CAKES

A cake sale will be held Friday afternoon at the Suffrage Campaign Committee, 109 East State Street.
There will also be a debate Friday evening.

CADWALADERITES, LOOKING FOR BARGAINS IN HAMS, VICTIMS OF SHORT WEIGHT MANIPULATOR

"Home-cured" hams have lost favor at least temporarily in Cadwalader Place, Cadwalader Heights and Hillcrest. Incidentally, the usually cautious housewives in that section of the city have discovered one of the reasons for the high cost of living.

One day recently two young men, looking for all the world like perfectly guileless farm-hands, toured the western end of town with horse and covered wagon that was supposed to be loaded with apples. Perhaps there were some apples in the wagon, but the carmen must have considered largely of "home-cured" hams, for fully a couple of hundred of them were disposed of in a day among the mistresses of households in that locality.

The plan was original and effective.
The more eloquent of the two men, giving his name as B. Williams, explained that he had only a few of the "home-cured" delicacies on board, but that he would dispose of them only to women who felt inclined to become regular customers and that he would sell them at twenty-two cents a pound.

The result must have been satisfying to Mr. Williams and his companion. Scarcely a housewife resisting the proposition. Then, after realizing that each lady in turn had no weighing apparatus convenient, Mr. Williams pulled forth from an inside pocket a handspring scale such as

GAIN NO TRACE OF BOROUGH SLAYER

Police Believe Criminal in Hiding in Home of Friend.
To Make Search

From the time that Robert Hennessy, engineer of Robbing's mill, saw Alpiro Pirelli empty the last shot of his revolver into the body of his wife, Marie, nothing is known by the police of the man wanted for the murder.

The police believe that because the man had made threats against his wife Saturday in public places as well as in the Second District Police Court that he was careful enough to have a hiding place selected before he committed the crime.

It is believed that he is hiding in the home of a friend and the authorities will search for him.

Chief Cleary yesterday sent out several hundred circulars containing a picture and the following description of the alleged murderer:

Alpiro Pirelli, native of Floren-tino, Perugia, Italy; 46 years old; 5 feet 6 inches tall; weighs 170 pounds; medium stout; dark complexion; dark hair and eyes; hair very thin in front; mole on right side of face, near nose; smooth face; may have mustache at several days' growth and not full mustache as shown in photograph, as he had previously shaved it off; wore dark colored cap; no overcoat; occupation, laborer; not lived happily with his family; convicted December 14, 1914, for assault and battery on wife; sent to Workhouse for six months; released January 23, 1915.

The circular also describes the shooting and tells of the reward offered.

BIBLE READING BILL MOVED AHEAD IN N. Y.

State Education Department Is Said To Be in Favor of Measure

ALBANY, Feb. 3.—Senator Greiner's bill making it mandatory for a principal or other head of a public school to read at least ten verses from the Bible at the beginning of each daily session has been reported out of the Assembly Public Education Committee and will be placed on the order of second reading in the lower house today. It is still in committee in the Senate.

Assemblyman Talliet, who fathered the bill in the Assembly, says that the measure has the backing of the State Department of Education. The bill provides that the Scriptural verses shall be read without sectarian comment.

$1,000,000 IN ORDER FOR LOCOMOTIVES

Illinois Central Gives Work to 4,000 Men—B. & O. Buys 25,000 Tons of Rails

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—Contracts for the purchase of twenty-five locomotives of the largest type from a Lima Co. corporation were signed yesterday by the Illinois Central.

The first engines will be delivered about March 15. The total value of the order is more than $1,000,000, and from 3,000 to 4,000 men will get work because of it.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 3.—Contracts were placed yesterday for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad for 25,000 tons of rails, closing options taken by the company a few weeks ago.

RIOTOUS SCENES AS WHEAT GOES TO NEW RECORD

Dropping Several Cents After Opening at $1.62, Leaps to Over $1.65 Per Bushel

CHICAGO SELLING SIX-CENT BREAD

Reports of Early Opening of Dardanelles Sends Price Down, But News That New Zealand Had Authorized Importation of Grain Hurled Wheat Skyward Again—Federal Gov't Takes Hand

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—The most riotous scenes witnessed on the Board of Trade, since the famous Patten and Leiter deals, occurred at to-day's opening, when May wheat opened at $1.62, suddenly dropped to as low as $1.55½ within ten minutes and at the end of 15 minutes had set a new high record by leaping to $1.65½ per bushel.

Speculators who crowded the public and private galleries caught the excitement and joined in the shouts from the floor.

Widely circulated reports that opening of the Dardanelles might soon be expected, thus leading to Russian wheat crops, was partly responsible for the bottom prices. These reports soon were followed by news that New Zealand's government had authorized importation of wheat. This sent prices skyward again.

At 10 o'clock, May wheat went to $1.64½ per bushel and July to $1.61½.

District Attorney Cline, acting for the Government, has issued subpoenas for a number of grain dealers, including Armour & Co., J. Rosenbergs and the Continental Bazaar.

BAKERS KEEPING BREAD PRICE LOW

Former Purchases of Flour Enabling Them to Serve Trade.

Small Dealers Hit

Foresight of Trenton bakers, it is said, in buying large quantities of flour some time ago has enabled them to keep the size of loaves of bread, which was formerly without changing the price.

Other cities have not been so fortunate. Just how long Trenton bakers will be enabled to sell the present-day size loaf of bread for five cents, will, of course, depend upon how much longer the price of flour will remain at its present level.

The larger bakers are still in pretty good shape so far as flour is concerned, having good supplies on hand and under contract. It is only the little, or neighborhood baker, who is hardest hit and it is just a question, it is said, how long he can continue to make bread with flour at about 25 cents a barrel, while the normal price ranges from $4.50 to $5.50.

While the large bakeries have supplies, if the smaller ones are obliged to temporarily suspend baking that fact will sooner have a tendency to increase the price of bread, it is stated, because the larger competitors will be obliged to bake more to meet the demand and their flour supply will naturally be more quickly depleted.

Trenton bakers are hopeful that they can all weather the present flurry in the flour market. However, there has been talk among some of the about either decreasing the size of the loaf of bread or increasing the price. It is asserted that practically all of the smaller bakeries of the city is losing money on every loaf of bread at the present price of flour.

SUROGATE SELECTS LONSDALE EXECUTOR

Because of not having named any executor in her will, Surrogate Bullock this morning appointed George C. Bullock administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Rachel Lonsdale, who died January 11. Another peculiar feature about the will is that she only bequeathed the personal property and had to be declared to have died intestate relative to the greater part of her estate, which consisted of some real estate on Stuyvesant Avenue. Under the law the real estate will be divided equally between two sons, Charles H. and Wilbur Lonsdale.

STOCKS OPEN QUIET

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The Stock Market was quiet at the opening today.
Price changes were unimportant.
The market opened unchanged at 40½, but lost ½ after a few sales.
Little trading was done during the first hour. United States Steel went back up to 40½, the price it opened at today.

The market was stagnant at noon.
Trading had practically ceased.
American cotton oil was strong.

MEETING TUESDAY TO FORM LEAGUE

Mayor Donnelly Issues Call to Municipalities of State—Bill in Legislature

Mayor Donnelly is completing arrangements for the organization meeting of the State League of New Jersey Municipalities to be held in the Commission Chamber at the City Hall next Tuesday morning. Clinton Roger Woodruff of Philadelphia, secretary of the National League of Municipalities, will speak. He will outline the object of the organization and tell of the workings of such bodies. The call for the gathering is being sent out by Mayor Donnelly today.

Mayor Donnelly is one of the main factors in the movement. He suggested the formation of such an organization at a hearing in New ark recently and was its chairman of the committee on organization.

A bill has been introduced in the Legislature which provides for the organization of such a body and appropriations for its maintenance.

YOUTH ROBS FUNDS OF SUNDAY SCHOOL

Minister Acts as Sherlock Holmes and Detects Lad

With the Rev. Charles H. Elder playing the role of Sherlock Holmes, and Charles Page of the Salvation Army as Dr. Watson, Sherlock's assistant, Raymond Latham, 13 years old, was detected stealing money from the Trinity M. E. Church yesterday afternoon. The boy is in charge of Assistant Probation Officer Morrison, having been arrested by Patrolman Silverstein.

In the course of an ardent attendant at the Sunday School of the church, Young Latham has been systematically robbing the funds of the Sunday school. He was not a member of the church or school, but he has been attending the sessions of the latter.

During the last three weeks the money in the fund of the Sunday School was raised regularly. The case remained a mystery until Mr.
Elder decided to solve it. With Mr.
Page as his partner, he watched and waited until Young Latham was caught in the act of robbing the fund of the Sunday school teacher. He gained entrance into the church through the back door.

The boy has a police record, having been on probation for some time.

ASKS NEW FOREIGN POLICY FOR TRADE

National Chamber of Commerce Hear McRoberts—Talk by Wilson Tonight

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The Nation is suffering from too much inflation, it was suggested today, as happened Monday night when Senator White of Burlington voted with the Democrats, thus bringing about the defeat of a Republican measure, Senator White was not present today.

Party measures are to be discussed in particular with a view of determining whether or not there will be any deviations from the majority as it was up to the Legislature to raise money to cover this amount.

The conference, according to President Edge of the Senate, will consider the situation and declare that it devote a major portion of the time to the questions of how many platform pledges have been carried out upon.

opposition, the concurrent resolution of the Senate and Assembly to sub-lower House. Its passage by the upper House and signing by Gov-

SAN LUIS POTOSI IS CAPTURED BY VILLA

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Capture of San Luis Potosi by Villa assured administration officials today that the northern chieftain is "still on the job." It also renewed their confidence that ultimately his forces will re-take Mexico City.

sleet, the 20,000 was as big a record

WOULD PUT COSTS ON MUNICIPALITIES

Party Measures Being Discussed With View of Determining Whether There Will Be Deflections, as Happened Monday Night, When Helped Democrats Kill Republican Bill

Bringing up their guns for the political campaign of 1916, the Republican Senators, with Speaker Godfrey and Majority Leader Runyon of the House, assembled at the Hotel Windsor in secret session today. The ostensible purpose of the conference is to take account of stock as it refers to the business thus far done by the Legislature.

The real purpose, however, is said to be the launching of a plan of action to reflect upon the Democratic administration and bolster the G. O.
Party of extra-voters and waste.
Today's conference comes as a climax to a series of informal discussions among the Senators and some of the party leaders, during which various plans of revenue raising have been discussed.

Among the suggestions to relieve what the Republicans call the straightened condition of the State treasury, is one to shift from the State to the various municipalities the expense of all sorts of examinations and inspections. This plan has been given more serious consideration than the thought of imposing a State tax, which some of the Republican members admitted had also been suggested. In going into the conference behind closed doors today, the legislators were primed with a lot of figures intended to show that an actual deficit of about $2,000,000 exists in the State treasury.

While none of the conference would assume the responsibility for saying that the reported deficit was real, several of them professed anxiety over the situation, and declared that
money to cover this amount.

The conference, according to President Edge of the Senate, will con-

BRIDGE DYNAMITER PUZZLING TO U. S.

Germans Claim This Country Cannot Surrender Him to Belligerent Nation

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—State Department officials are prepared to receive from British Ambassador Spring-Rice a request for extradition of the alleged German dynam-iter, who yesterday wrecked the Vanceboro, Me., bridge into Canada.
It is a request that cannot be a valuable international problem. The alleged dynamiter, Werner Van Horn, himself claims immunity. Further, he maintains that, as a German, he committed no political crime for which he cannot now be extradited.
He contends that he has the right to seek refuge in a neutral country and that he cannot be delivered to a belligerent by this nation.

Ambassador Spring-Rice expects formally to present his request during the day. Until it is received and studied, along with international precedents, however, department heads indicate they intend to make no official comment.

According to the police, Van Horn, a man of middle age, of an military bearing, told them that he left Germany five years ago and for the past four years he has managed a coffee plantation in Mexico. Re-

191ST DAY OF WAR

FRANCE—Fierce hand-to-hand battling near St. Paul as Germans begin new effort to cross Aisne at Soissons, less than 60 miles from Paris. French repulse charges near Perthes and take prisoners. Fog-forces cessation of fighting in Alsace and the Vosges.

RUSSIA—Entire German battalion annihilated in the Carpathians.
Germans concentrating southeast of Beskid Pass to help Austrians defend Hungary. Germans renew assault on Russian lines west of Warsaw. Persistent attacks along Bzura.

GERMANY—Village of Humin captured and 4,000 Russians taken prisoners. Advance on Warsaw continued.

TURKEY—Surprised by Turks, two British battalions fire at each other, inflicting heavy losses. Turks later driven off by English gunboat.

MEANING OF WAR MOVES

(Prepared by J. W. T. Mason, former European Manager of United Press)

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—After considerable delay, the third invasion of Serbia, which was suggested last month, is now about to begin, according to information reaching Paris from Nish, Serbia's temporary mountainous capital.

Flooded conditions of Serbia boundary rivers are declared at Nish to have postponed the new advance. not this, but the defeat of Russia's Carmathian movement and of the Slav drive on Budapest is the determining cause of the third invasion of troops for a Serbian attack. Until the Russians were forced back into the Carpathians and Hungary was freed of the Slav menace, no measures could be taken to revenge the two defeats Austria has suffered at the hands of the Serbs. Now, however, the Russian campaign is to be resumed.

The army of invasion, according to information at Nish, is composed of German and Hungarian troops. It is probable, also, that the German General Staff is in command of the campaign. This disposition of the troops in fact suggests that typical forefront which has been characteristic only of the German commanders since the war began.

The previous invasions of Serbia have been across the northwestern boundary of the country. The present movement is being prepared at the northeastern corner of Serbia.
This is the point where Serbia touches Rumania on the east and Hungary on the north, with Transylvania only 40 miles away. The base of the movement into Serbia, therefore, is a pivot on which the Austro-German expedition can be swung into Rumania or recalled and turned into Transylvania with little loss of time.

The advance into Serbia itself can be advantageously conducted from the northwestern corner of the country's boundary and in some respects presents the best possible field for operations against Nish.
In this fact, however, does not lie the strategic genius of the direction of the new movement. The selection of the northeastern corner as the base of operations is a brilliant choice because of the threat to Rumania.

ENGLISH, SURPRISED, FIRE AT EACH OTHER

BAGDAD, via Berlin, Feb. 3.—Surprised in a night attack by the Turks, English battalions at Yozgat, at the junction of the Euphrates and Tigris Rivers, fired upon each other, inflicting severe loss, according to dispatches received here today. At daylight, English gunboats drove off the Turks.

BATTALION WIPED OUT BY RUSSIA

PETROGRAD, Feb. 2.—Annihilation of an entire German battalion, belonging to the 224th Infantry, in the fighting in the Carpathians, was claimed in official dispatches from the front today.

"These dispatches contain absolute confirmation of the report that German armies were concentrating southeast of the Beskid Pass," said the official statement. "The Germans are co-operating with the Austrians in the defense of Hungary." General von Mackensen is pouring more German regiments into the onslaught on the Russian lines west of Warsaw. The Russians are resisting every attempt to pierce their lines and confidence is expressed here that the high tide of the new German threat on Warsaw is passed.

Along the Bzura, some distance from Bolimow, the enemy is attacking persistently, supported by heavy and light artillery," said official dispatches. "North of Borzhynow, the enemy attacked the Russian forces, but was repulsed with severe losses. Very stubborn fighting has occurred south of the Bzura, but the Russians have recaptured the positions lost on Sunday and Monday's fighting. South of the Pilica River and along the Domajec, the enemy's artillery fire has increased. Efforts to attack have been unsuccessful."

PARIS, Feb. 3.—Fierce hand-to-hand combats in the region of St.
Paul marked the launching of a new German onslaught to force the passage of the Aisne at Soissons, less than 60 miles from Paris.
